BORAH DECLARES HUGHES PLAN IS GOOD BEGINNING

(Republican A. P. Leased Wire)

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Senator William E. Borah of Idaho, addressing a disarmament mass meeting, declared that the proposal of Secretary Hughes for the limitation of naval armaments by Great Britain, Japan and the United States was a "magnificent beginning, but only a beginning." He emphasized, however, that the proposals had not yet been accepted and advocated continued agitation for open sessions of the arms conference in Washington in order to afford opportunity for fixing responsibility for its acceptance or rejection.

The power of public opinion, Senator Borah said, was the only power that could bring about disarmament or any effective limitation of armament. He said he favored Secretary Hughes' proposal because he believed the naval rivalry between Great Britain, Japan and the United States, which he asserted, were building great navies against each other, constituted the greatest immediate menace to the peace of the world, and predicted war between the United States and Japan was inevitable unless the proposal was accepted.

"I am not so much concerned," said Senator Borah, "with the public session at the opening of the conference as with the open session at the close, as there any reason why Secretary Hughes' proposal should not be discussed in public? Is there any nation which wants to stand out against the opinion of mankind? There is not a nation that can do so in the open and let the brand of Cain be put upon it. If the door is closed, it will be a blow at the cause of peace and disarmament."

Referring to the secret meetings of the peace conference at Paris, during which, he said, the code President Wilson took there was smashed and every one of the 14 points lost by trading, he added:

"Do not forget that the commendation that greeted the proposals of Mr. Wilson surpassed the commendations that have greeted the proposals of Mr. Hughes."

Senator Borah then attacked "secret diplomacy" as the cause of many wars and offered a suggestion for amending the constitution to provide for a referendum on war, instead of entrusting the decision to a small group of officials.

"I think we achieved yesterday at Washington a very great victory on behalf of disarmament and peace," said Senator Borah in beginning his speech, "but we shall make a great mistake if we assume that our work is now finished and that the rest of the task can be left to the gentlemen now convened at Washington."

Homebody—do you've been out in the Rocky Mountains? Did you see there? Benaway—No, we only Juliet there.
